Marie Bostwick

Marie Bostwick is a New York Times and USA Today Bestseller of heartwarming fiction for women. A film adaptation of her book The Second Sister, "Christmas Everlasting," debuted on the Hallmark Channel as a Hallmark Hall of Fame feature in November 2018, starring Patti LaBelle. Marie's latest novel, Hope on the Inside, was published in March 2019 and has been chosen for a Reader's Digest "Select Editions" book. She is also known for her Cobble Court Quilt series and her recently-launched lifestyle blog, FierceBeyond50.

David Margolick

David Margolick is a long-time contributing editor at Vanity Fair. For 15 years, he was a legal affairs correspondent for the New York Times, and wrote the column "At the Bar." Margolick has written many non-fiction books including The Tragedy of 1968: What Might Have Been if King and Kennedy Had Lived; and books about Martin Luther King, Joe Lewis and others. He is now working on a study of Sid Caesar and the seminal television comedy program "Your Show of Shows" for Nextbook/Schocken.

Alana Chernila

Alana Chernila is the author of three books: The Homemade Pantry: 101 Foods You Can Stop Buying and Start Making; The Homemade Kitchen: Recipes for Cooking With Pleasure, and Eating From the Ground Up: Recipes for Simple Perfect Vegetables. She has also written for Martha Stewart Living, Taproot, Food52.com, and many other periodicals. She is on the website Craftsy, where she teaches an online class about how to make all sorts of foods from scratch including nut butters, granola bars, and her personal favorite, yogurt.
